

*The 25th Anniversary of the
Anna V. Brown
Community Forum*

The celebration takes place Monday, May 16, 2011 - 11:00 am - 2:00 pm
Cleveland State University - (Student Center)
2121 Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, OH 44115

The cost for the event is: General Public $25.00; Seniors and Student $20.00.
A reply card is enclosed for your convenience.

For more information contact: Ms. Cynthia Buchanan at (216) 965-9242 or
Dr. Michael Williams at (216) 523-7211

Dr. Pamela Redden
Keynote Speaker

This event honors the memory and legacy of a community leader and a great pioneer in the field of applied gerontology, the late Anna V. Brown. The celebration recognizes the well being of African American elders and the contribution they have made to the community.

The day includes Dr. Pamela Redden, keynote speaker, awards presentation, lunch and entertainment. A celebratory day, in which you will learn, be informed, and Inspired!

In collaboration with the following organizations: AARP, Benjamin Rose Institute on Aging, Buchanan Legacy Consultants, City of Cleveland Dept. of Aging, Cleveland State Black Studies Program, Cleveland State University School of Social Work, Cuyahoga County Dept. of Senior & Adult Services, Cuyahoga County Public Library, Eliza Bryant Village, Helen Brown S. Senior Center, Huron Hospital, a Cleveland Clinic hospital, National Caucus & Center on Black Aged, Western Reserve Area Agency on Aging

Theme: Aging in the 21st Century